

The Midwestern Medical Directors Association has been a highly regarded source for quality education and networking opportunities for over half a century. Our membership remains strong in the order of 70 medical directors from around the country.

Since the fall of 2008, MMDA has welcomed non-physician members as Affiliate Members. With the payment of annual dues, these members may participate on committees and are relieved of the duties of voting or holding office.

We invite you to join MMDA, supporting those in insurance medicine with fostering the strong membership, valuable educational opportunities, and fellowship which have flourished in this organization since 1954.

The MMDA, along with MetLife will host one meeting. Please plan on attending.

November 4-6, 2010

Hosted by: MetLife
Contact: Jacki Goldstein, MD
